Open to all UC San Diego undergraduate and graduate students

Types of projects include:
photography, drawing, painting, poetry, 3-minute performance

- Projects should follow the UC San Diego principles of community.
- One project submission per participant, with one sentence summarizing how the project connects to the themes of health & well being.
- Students are encouraged to use existing projects for their submissions.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: January 27, 2016, noon

Submit projects/images of projects or questions to ah-lectures@cloud.ucsd.edu
Submissions should be less than 25MB.

Sponsored by the Graduate Division and the Division of Arts & Humanities

Visit artsandhumanitites.ucsd.edu/events/degrees-of-health-and-well-being.html for more information on the competition and the Health & Well-Being Speaker Series.